The woman enforces the young girl's head under ice water (to hide the fact that she is abusing her) to remove her bruises. Young girls are shown almost drowning, struggling and gasping for air. The young girl is shown with bruises all over her body. A teenage girl is seen punching a man in the face, with blood and bruises. A teenage girl's home has been torched by unknown assailants. She collapses from lack of oxygen, but the man manages to take her out in time. Stressful and intense. The young boy tries to kill the woman by pushing her down the stairs, but is stopped by another boy. The man attempts to force another man to kill himself. A young girl is said to have been kidnapped and frozen to death by a man. A woman is stabbed to death. Graphic and very emotional. The child is trapped in a car driven into the river and the adult sees him drowning. Intense scenes, especially given that the episode ends after the child has passed the episode. After the standThe woman is beaten with a shovel. Flashbacks show a woman with an abusive husband. We see a lot of bruises and bandages as she is beaten. Then she begins to abuse the little girl (her daughter) out of completely blind rage. The man threatens to poison the young girl, but ultimately fails. It's not too intense, but it's horrible, because it happens without warning. The story of this show is about the protagonist preventing the kidnapping and murder of innocent children. There are darker moments because it deals with the subject of domestic abuse. Many scenes are intense and very emotional. A boy is in the car. The scenes and music turn into an eerie mood to reveal that someone in the car is the killer. The environment is red, the killer is smiling badly, with blood red eyes. The man locks the child in the car and he drives into the river (he escapes) and intends to drown the boy. Very intense. It is said that the young girl was constantly abused by her mother for no reason, suffered physically and mentally, and was completely single and had no friends. disturbing and emotional. The child believes he saved another child from being killed, but it later becomes clear the moment she was killed after other characters left her. He screams in disbelief and suffering after realizing this. Very emotional and sad scene. The child discovers his friend trapped in the shed. It was revealed that she had been beaten and frozen to death by her mother. A young girl is trapped in an abandoned bus with a serial killer as she tries to hide from him. This is very intense. Episodes 5, 7, 8 and 9 in particular are incredibly intense, suspenseful, stressful and emotional. The backstory of the main enemy is very disturbing. The final episode is very emotional, but uplifting and happy. The following parent guide items can give you important plot points. One boy could easily be mistaken for a 12-year-old girl. Later in the series, he is shown as an adult as a father. He is only targeted as one of the little girls who kills because of his ambiguous appearance. The 29-year-old has a 17-year-old girl colleague he likes and creates uncomfortable emotions that he is inside. When he returns in time, he has a strange internal feeling that an 11-year-old girl likesThe body of an 11-year-old boy with a 29-year-old mind. In the body of an 11-year-old boy, a 29-year-old man with a heart was found attracted to a female 11-year-old classmate. This does not involve anything sexual. The main character tries to throw himself off the roof of the building, but is stopped by another man. The man clings to him but eventually can go, emotionally anxious to see the protagonist fall to his death. He was actually found to have disguised his death for a second man to turn himself in to police. A young boy falls into a coma after nearly drowning a man. He wakes up about 15 years later with almost no memories about his past life. Because of this, the last few episodes are very emotional. Emotions.
